BLACK VIOLIN

Black Violin blends classical, hip-hop, rock, R&B, and bluegrass music. Accompanied by a drummer and a DJ, Black Violin (declared one of the "hottest bands of SXSW") has been performing to SRO crowds. Named after an album by African-American preeminent jazz swing-era violinist Stuff Smith, Wil B and Kev perform an average of 200 shows per year and have brought their music to 49 states and 36 countries. Black Violin recently inked a major label deal with Universal Classics, and were invited to perform at both TEDx and Google's "meeting of the minds" event, Zeitgeist.

Performance Highlights Include:

- Presidential Inauguration Ball for Barack Obama
- NFL celebrations for three Superbowls
- US Open at Forest Hills with Jordin Sparks
- SXSW Opening Keynote performance (Dave Grohl, speaker)
- US Troops in Iraq
