

Tabitha Meeks

Christmas Show

BIOGRAPHY

The Queen of Retro Pop has arrived. Currently touring her new album “Can’t a Girl Dream?” Around the country, her piano solos and live shows are unmatched for their vintage and fun energy. She is best described as “Norah Jones meets Nancy Sinatra,” and Tabitha Meeks’ feel-good throwback music will make you bop your head, tap your toes, and feel empowered all at once.

Her Holiday music has had a big impact on fans worldwide, with popular Christmas show, her viral song “Ready for Christmas” used in over 1.2 million social media videos and garnering over 3 billion views, and her song “Christmas With You” being featured in the Hallmark movie Catch Me if You Claus.

Her latest Christmas EP “Snow Day” dropped October 2025, with the title track being used over 150k times on social media.

“Tabitha Meeks opened the night in exactly the right way... Meeks’ voice and delivery sit somewhere between Norah Jones’ warmth and Nancy Sinatra’s poise, a combination that worked perfectly in Union Chapel.”
