POP

Nashville's Retro Pop Trailblazer Tabitha Meeks Releases Debut Album Can't A Girl Dream?

“Blending vintage flair with sharp modern wit, the project feels like a vision board brought vividly to life, featuring standout track “Girl of the Hour.”

~Melodic Magazine

“With retro vibes and contemporary sensibilities anchored by Tabitha’s one-of-a-kind vocals and her skills on the piano...its songs are dedicated to the yearners and dreamers everywhere. The album is an homage to classic pop of the '60s and '70s while telling Tabitha’s own modern story.”

~Sweety High New Music Friday

“Tabitha Meeks opened the night in exactly the right way... Meeks’ voice and delivery sit somewhere between Norah Jones’ warmth and Nancy Sinatra’s poise, a combination that worked perfectly in Union Chapel.”

~Northern Exposure Magazine (London)

“Tabitha Meeks is dubbed the queen of retro pop here in Nashville. She comes by her reputation by penning hooky tunes full of well crafted melodies and interesting instrumentation.” - LIGHTNING 100

“#boyfriendbreakfast burrito at dawn,” Paltrow captioned the clip, which played along to Tabitha Meeks and Ryan Corn’s 2023 song “Ready For Christmas.” - PEOPLE MAGAZINE
